Digital Document Management

In a relentless effort to provide value-added services to its clients, T.W. Hawes Inc. has invested in the technology and now offers Digital Document Management services.

The paperless office is actually possible, reducing the high costs incurred by storing years of historical financial documents. In addition to cost savings, digital document management improves retrieval capability, increases security and reduces the risk of destruction by risks such as fire, theft or flooding by providing redundancy (backup).

Contact T.W. Hawes Inc. to enquire about a program that will suit your needs.
